Motivated at work for you

AT MYS Homeschool Academy, we offer a unique learning experience in a safe, caring, and nurturing environment. Our number one priority is to educate and support learners by providing quality onsite and online instructional support that is aligned to state standards. MYS is passionate about our learners and families and strive to maintain good relationships that are built on Christian values and from a holistic approach.

Not only do our learners engage in quality academic and instructional support, our student-athletes have the ability to continue their athletic development during the school day, allowing them to continue to enhance and develop their skills and abilities.

Could you be our next Partnership?

HOW WE WORK

Motivated Young Scholars was started as a response to the notable crisis of many students failing in public and cyber schools. Families were new to the prospect of homeschooling, unfamiliar with the use of technology, and unprepared to now be the home teacher. Families realized that their children needed extra help and support to meet the basic PDE requirements and be successful as learners. And now with Covid-19, families need more support than ever.

As a homeschool organization our aim is not to compare our center to others, but to improve it. We know that every child is unique, as such we guide each child according to their unique needs, talent , and abilities. We are an inclusive organization, therefore we can work with a diverse range of learners while taking into account the age and individual level of each child. We work one on one with learners and keep our class sizes small. The environment maintains a culture of respect and discipline that allows us the time to cater to each student-athlete.

EARNING POTENTIAL

As the Partnership of an Independent Homeschool you can set the fees that the parents pay for their children to attend your site. The number of children you enroll will depend on the size of your gym or center.

EXAMPLE

Based on $100 per learner per week	10 learners	30 learners
Annual rate per learner	$4000	$4000
Turnover	$40,000	$120,000

Example:

- ◆ $400 a month per learner x 5 learners = $2000 monthly center fee.
- ◆ Partnership Fee of $150 monthly paid to MYS (equates to $30 per student-athlete).
- ◆ $2000 monthly received by families minus $150 partnership fee leaves your center with $1850.00 towards program expenses.

WHY NOT PARTNER NOW

Motivated Young Scholars is a homeschool center partnering with parents to help educate their learners. It is our vision to help homeschool learners reach their full potential by meeting their instructional needs and equipping them for success. We meet one on one and in small groups to ensure that each learner is receiving the support they need. Parents feel confident that their learner is receiving the very best in instructional and academic support. Our onsite centers are located within an athletic facility where our student-athletes have the option to develop and enhance their skills. Our mission is to encourage each learner to be the best they can be in order to lead fulfilled lives as productive members of society. As a Partnership we would expect you to hold the same of the values that we have as a homeschool organization.

We are very passionate about our learners and their families and strive to maintain good relationships that are built from a holistic approach. We believe the adage that "It takes a village to raise a child" so community is an important element to the Motivated life. We make it a point to provide community service through workshops, food give-a-ways, back to school fairs, wellness fairs and more.
